

English

Key Text: Escape from Pompeii by Christina Balit

Purpose for writing: To entertain and to inform

Writing: To write a story middle and end.

To write a set of instructions.

Grammar: Prepositions, complex sentences, conjunctions, subordinate clauses, direct speech,

Word Reading / Comprehension: Inference and retrieval practice within a daily shared reading session.

Phonics/ Spelling: Spellings are sent home for practising each week, testing on Wednesday.

Computing

Focus: Unit 3.6 - Branching Databases

Scheme of learning

- Sort objects, use branching databases and create branching databases.

Focus: Unit 3.7 - Simulations

- Explore simulations, make choices, discuss effects and evaluate.

Maths

Number: Fractions

- Adding and subtracting fractions and fractions of amounts.

Measurement: Money

- Adding and subtracting money, finding change and converting pounds and pennies.

Measurement: Time

- Telling time to 5 minutes and to the minute, AM and PM, duration of time, units of time and roman numerals.

History

Focus: Roman as settlers

This term, we are continuing with our work on the Romans, but focusing on the Romans as settlers in Britain and what they did for us. We will be looking at the Roman roads, bridges and cities; many of which are still evident today.

We will also be studying Hadrian's wall and its purpose; before looking at why the romans left at the end of the unit.

Year 3: Summer 1

Music

Focus: First access Ukulele lessons on a Thursday Morning.

PE

Focus: Fitness and Tennis

PSHE

Focus: Healthy Me

Science

Focus: Physics - Light

Key knowledge: We need light in order to see the world, Light sources and the sun. Reflected light off of different surfaces. Investigations of how shadows change.

Working Scientifically: Making careful observations, setting up simple, fair tests, gathering and recording data to answer a question.

RE

Focus: Why do Christians call the day Jesus died Good Friday? What does it mean to be a Hindu in Britain today?

French— Kapow

Focus: Transport

Art

Focus: Drawing, Abstract/ Weaving and Tie Dye

They will learn about abstract art, colour mixing and the history of weaving and how to use tie dye. They will create abstract art, an artistic woven piece and a piece of tie dyed fabric.

Artist Study: Wassily Kandinsky