

What we already know: The Celtic Tribes in Britain were trading with Romans The Celts were known as masters in Bronze and Iron Britain was known as a wealthy land Italy is in a country in Southern Europe The climate in Rome is warmer than Britain	Year 3 History: Romans							What's next? What makes an ancient civilisation Learn about one of the oldest civilizations in the world – Ancient Egyptians. Learn how Romans impacted the Ancient Egyptian Civilization positively and negatively
Timeline
	Ancient History			1 CE				Modern History	Present
Stone Age	Bronze Age	Iron Age		Roman Britain					Victorian Era	2023
800,000 BCE Used Stones tools, Nomadic	2,100 BCE Metal was used for the first time	750 BCE Large organised tribes Used Iron for tools						1451 Columbus Slavery	1799 Mary Anning 1820 Florence Nightingale	Yr3
Early settlers in southern Europe		500 BCE Start of the Roman Civilisation	55 54BCE Caesar failed to invade UK	43 CE Claudius Invaded Britain	60 CE Boudica's husband died	117 CE Hadrian became Emperor	410 CE Roman's leave Britain	Roman Empire collapses

Story of Britain	Society and Government	Economy and Trade	Beliefs	Vocab
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Romans Invaded Britain for wealthJulius Caesar tried to invade in 55 and 54 BCE. His army could not defeat the Celts  A statue of Caesar <ul style="list-style-type: none">Emperor Claudius successfully invade Britain almost 100 years laterCeltic tribes had to accept Roman rules to stay aliveSome Celtic tribes could not accept Roman rule. Many people lost their lives  Boudica lost her life in a war with the Romans <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Roman Empire never invaded ScotlandThe Pict Tribe resisted the RomansHadrian's wall was built to keep the Picts outLondon was major Roman SettlementRomans left Britain in 410AD	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The Empire was ruled by male Emperors  <ul style="list-style-type: none">Patricians were wealthy Romans who owned large villas and landPlebeians were the poorest citizens. They had physical jobsThe Romans had the largest, most organised army in the world  Roman Army Shields <ul style="list-style-type: none">Romans had slaves to cook, clean and to build (buildings and roads)Some Roman slaves were abandoned children and Europeans captured in warWomen were not allowed to ruleWomen were not allowed to own land or buildings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Romans traded with many areas of Europe and AfricaRomans sold wine, olive oil to BritainThe Romans traded with the Celts: lead (needed for water pipes), tin (needed to make bronze woollen products (to keep them warm in colder climates)Trading with Europe made the Empire very wealthyThe Romans built roads to make trading easier. They could transport goods across large areas very quicklyThe Romans built over 8000 miles of roads in Britain  <ul style="list-style-type: none">Romans traded people as slavesRomans invade lots of countries to find more slaves to build the Empire	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Romans believed in multiple Gods and that these gods took on a human formThey believed that the Gods controlled all aspects of life – war, love, food...Romans believed that the Gods would reward or punish themRomans could please the gods by working hard, being brave, following rulesThe Romans could see some of the planets in the sky at nightThey named the planets after their GodsThe largest planet – was named after the king of the Gods - JupiterThe red planet was named after Mars – the god of warThe brightest planet was named after Venus – The goddess of LoveRomans believed there was an afterlife but only the spirt of the person passed on. They were not buried with belonging on death	<table><tr><th colspan="2">Vocab</th></tr><tr><th colspan="2">Tier One</th></tr><tr><td>Italy</td><td>Slave</td></tr><tr><td>Europe</td><td>Celts</td></tr><tr><td>Trade</td><td>Planet</td></tr></table> <table><tr><th colspan="2">Tier Two</th></tr><tr><td>Empire</td><td>A group of states / countries ruled over by one person</td></tr><tr><td>Emperor</td><td>The highest position in the Roman Empire similar to a king</td></tr><tr><td>Invaded</td><td>A leader sends an army to a country to attack it for money, land, goods</td></tr><tr><td>Picts</td><td>The largest Celtic tribe in Scotland</td></tr><tr><td>Resisted</td><td>To fight back so the invaders do not win</td></tr><tr><td>Citizens</td><td>People who live and work in a town or country</td></tr><tr><td>Collapse Army</td><td>Fails, falls down Trained fighters who kill people in different country. They are ordered to attack by a king or emperor</td></tr></table> <table><tr><th colspan="2">Tier Three</th></tr><tr><td>Plebeians</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Patricians</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Abandoned</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Strategic</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Deities</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Revolt</td><td></td></tr></table>	Vocab		Tier One		Italy	Slave	Europe	Celts	Trade	Planet	Tier Two		Empire	A group of states / countries ruled over by one person	Emperor	The highest position in the Roman Empire similar to a king	Invaded	A leader sends an army to a country to attack it for money, land, goods	Picts	The largest Celtic tribe in Scotland	Resisted	To fight back so the invaders do not win	Citizens	People who live and work in a town or country	Collapse Army	Fails, falls down Trained fighters who kill people in different country. They are ordered to attack by a king or emperor	Tier Three		Plebeians		Patricians		Abandoned		Strategic		Deities		Revolt
Vocab
Tier One
Italy	Slave
Europe	Celts
Trade	Planet
Tier Two
Empire	A group of states / countries ruled over by one person
Emperor	The highest position in the Roman Empire similar to a king
Invaded	A leader sends an army to a country to attack it for money, land, goods
Picts	The largest Celtic tribe in Scotland
Resisted	To fight back so the invaders do not win
Citizens	People who live and work in a town or country
Collapse Army	Fails, falls down Trained fighters who kill people in different country. They are ordered to attack by a king or emperor
Tier Three
Plebeians
Patricians
Abandoned
Strategic
Deities
Revolt

