-England became a single kingdom is commonly split into different eras: Anglo-Saxons; Medieval; Tudors; Stuarts; Georgians; Victorians and the modern era. -The increasing power on the monarchy in Tudor times meant that the monarch determined what the law was. -Punishments for crimes became more and more barbaric to deter criminals. -The new laws set by Parliament around things like Poaching and Smuggling made life harder for poor people and easier for the rich.  -In the Victorian era, public opinion began to matter more and things like public executions were stopped because they had become unpopular.	-Tax laws in Anglo-Saxon times meant that the rich got richer and more powerful and could 'buy' their way out of punishments. -The poor were taxed heavily and often couldn't survive without breaking the law — hence the stories of Robin Hood. -In Tudor times the power of the monarchy increases. The King was seen as being appointed by God and therefore all powerful.  -During Stuart times, more people felt the power on the monarchy and the church was unfair. -This led to the English Civil war, after which the UK became more of a democracy and the King could only rule with consent from Parliament.		-Anglo-Saxon conversion to Christianity and God was seen to be in direct control of all things (note this a common theme amongst the different belief systems) and that this led to Trial by Ordeal. -Christianity comes in different forms. Henry VIII breaks from the Roman Catholic Church to form the Church of England. This created a great split in the country. -The division between Roman Catholics and Protestants was one of the reasons behind the Gun Powder Plot. -In Stuart times, the monarchy and church lost some of its power as Parliament became the main place where laws were set. -In modern times, religion has a lot less to do with the legal process.	Tier One <table><tr><td>Punishment</td><td>Courts</td></tr><tr><td>Laws</td><td>Illegal</td></tr><tr><td>Crime</td><td></td></tr></table> Tier Two Justice - treated in a way that is equal and fair. Oath — a promise. Outlaw - a person who is "outside the law" usually because they have committed serious crime. Monarchy - a form of government that is run by a single person. Treason - the crime of betraying one's country. Parliament - lawmaking group, in the government Defendant - a person who is being sued or accused in a legal action. Tier Three Assassination Witchcraft Devil Executed	Punishment	Courts	Laws	Illegal	Crime
