

English
Key Texts: The Secret Sky Garden and Vlad and the Great fire of London
Purpose for writing: Setting description
The focus for the children's writing this term is to create a setting description. They will be taught new vocabulary which they can use in their writing. They will also learn new skills such writing expanded noun phrases and using 'because' correctly.

History
The Great Fire of London
A significant event in History
Our focus this term will be exploring the content of London in 1666 and the conditions that assisted the spread of the fire. The children will explore the role of individuals such as King Charles II and Samuel Pepys. The children will explore sources consider chronology as well as compare through similarities and differences.

Art
Focus: Drawing and Printing
We will be looking at the skills surrounding drawing and painting such as line, shape, shade and tone. The children will go on to explore the work of Bridget Riley and her printing.
Artist study: Karen Eastman

YEAR 2

Computing
Focus: Online Safety

Maths
Number:
Place Value with numbers up to 100
Addition and subtraction

The Great Fire of London

Science
Physics
Materials (and their properties including natural, man-made, stretch, squash, bend and twist. This will see us explore our Working scientifically areas of learning such as making observations and recording our findings.

Music
Under the Sea

RE
Focus: Who is Muslim and how do they live?

PSHE
Focus: - Being me in my world

PE
Focus: Fundamentals and Invasion Games