Mini Question 1 What guides will you use to help you on your life's journey?	Mini Question 2 In what ways do you think baptism is an important ceremony for Christians?	Mini Question 3 What do you think is challenging about becoming a Jewish adult at 12 or 13?
Each of us take different journeys throughout our lives and some take a religious journey. How believers of different faiths feel keeps them safe and gives them guidance on their journey.	Infant baptism is an initiation ceremony which can be followed by confirmation as a fulfilment of promises made by parents during infant baptism. At a believer's baptism promises are made in the baptismal service – to reject evil and sin, to follow Christ, to live a life of love	Bar and Bat Mitzvah mark the move for Jewish young people from childhood towards adulthood. After becoming Bar/Bat Mitzvah – son or daughter of the commandment - young people are considered responsible for their own decisions and actions and old enough to follow the mitzvot, commandments, for themselves.
Mini Question 4 Imagine you were to go through a 'growing up' ceremony similar to Rajan's upanayana. - what promises would you make for your future life?	Mini Question 5 What reasons would make you get married?	Mini Question 6 Some people say being married is great but can be hard sometimes. What might Non-religious people or Christians or Hindus or Jewish people do when marriage is challenging
Hindu religious practices and beliefs are based on a set of Holy Scriptures (the Vedas). The performance of duties (dharma) are according to an individual's nature. After upanayana men wear their sacred threads all the time.	In most major religions including those followed by Christian, Jewish and Hindu people marriage is ideally for life, it is the place to bring up children and a journey for two people in love.	The words spoken during both religious and non-religious wedding ceremonies show what commitment, love and promises during good times and bad times means.
Mini Question 7 What can you learn from a Hindu's map for life?	Vocabulary	Elements of Learning
Religion is like a 'map for life'. All journeys are similar yet have some different milestones. Christians, Jewish people and Hindus all have a map for life to follow.	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none;"> Journey Milestones Ceremonies Infant Baptism Believers' baptism Sacred thread ceremony Ketubah </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none;"> Bar Mitzvah Bat Mitzvah Marriage Commitment Moksha Promises Samskaras </td> </tr> </table>	Journey Milestones Ceremonies Infant Baptism Believers' baptism Sacred thread ceremony Ketubah	Bar Mitzvah Bat Mitzvah Marriage Commitment Moksha Promises Samskaras
